

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

This workshop will include a few demos regarding interiors; we will review historical approaches as well as contemporary. The class will cover interpreting various light situations, color, and space as it relates to composition, means of developing the painting with regards to materials and techniques. We will cover drawing, value, color, edges and surface manipulation. Artist will receive quality time to discuss and question during the full duration as a group and individual about all aspects of the creative process. Artists are welcome at all levels and all mediums to this unique workshop.

He is an art materials expert assisting artists, company and industry manufacturers on all aspects of materials and techniques.